What is Celebration of Sport?

Now in its 7th year, Live Borders' Celebration of Sport showcases the wealth of talent that exists across the Scottish Borders. From local clubs and teams through to high performance sport, the Borders boasts an enviable CV of achievement across a range of sports.

Charity Live Borders also celebrates those behind-the-scenes with coaches, volunteers and those who have dedicated a lifetime to sport being recognised. Inductees to the Borders Hall of Sporting Fame are also announced on the night.

With such rich sporting talent, we believe there is no better way to highlight this than with a Celebration of Sport event; however, the awards are dependent on the generosity of event sponsors.

The awards are:

Hall of Fame
Sports Personality of the Year
Junior Sports Personality of the Year
Coach of the Year
Junior Coach of the Year
Team of the Year
Club of the Year
Service to Sport
Event of the Year
Inspirational Performer
Disability Award

Who is involved?

Radio Borders' Stuart MacFarlane is back by popular demand to MC. All guest can enjoy an informative and entertaining night with a 3-course meal as award winners are announced, culminating in the announcement of Sports Personality of the Year.

A raffle of sporting memorabilia also takes place on the evening.

The Live Borders' team collaborates with professional photographer, Phil Wilkinson, who works on all pre-event footage and takes snaps of all our attendees and sponsors on the night.

Where is it taking place?

Friday 27 September 2019
 Times: 18:30 for 19:00 start
 Victoria Halls, Selkirk

At the heart of charity Live Borders is a commitment to our communities being healthier, happier and stronger.
