

Matt Carmichael & Fergus McCreadie

The wunderkids of Scottish jazz, described as among the most exciting young jazz musicians in Europe, their music reflects a love of Scottish musical traditions, played on saxophone and piano, placed within American and European jazz stylings. This rare pairing will be a unique event not to be missed.

Friday 18th November @ 8pm

Savourna Stevenson & Steve Kettley

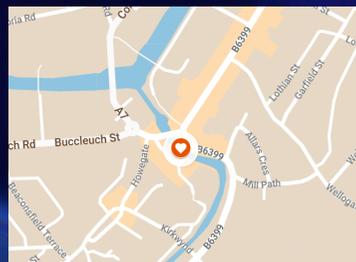

This duo combine a blend of haunting melodies, pulsating rhythms and stirring improvisations on harp and saxophones. Their eclectic approach blends classical, folk, world music and jazz stylings to create a dynamic evening of barrier breaking music.

Saturday 26th November @ 7.30pm

Tickets for all concerts: £15.00 / £12.00 Concs

Book your tickets at:
liveborders.org/heartofhawick
or over the counter at the venue

Heart of Hawick is the hert of community cultural activity in the Scottish Borders, featuring an all year round programme of cinema, music, theatre, comedy, dance and talks. It is situated at the top of Hawick High Street and its cafe bar is open seven days a week.

Heart of Hawick, Kirkstile, Hawick TD9 0AE

01450 360 688 (office hours only)

heart of hawick

LIVE
BORDERS

Heart of Music

The best of folk, traditional, jazz and song-writers from Scotland and beyond at Heart of Hawick

August - November 2022

heart of hawick

LIVE
BORDERS

Heart of Hawick is the heart of music in the Scottish Borders.

We're bringing you an exciting new series of internationally renowned musicians featuring the best in folk, traditional, jazz and singer songwriters from Scotland and beyond.

Our opening series showcases a range of artists, many who work within Scottish traditional music or draw strongly on it for inspiration to make exciting, entertaining music that often challenges the notion of tradition whilst celebrating its vivacity. Come and see world class musicians in these intimate performances.

Brian Kellock and Konrad Wiszniewski

Pianist Brian Kellock is internationally acclaimed for his swinging style and sense of adventure in interpreting the jazz canon. Konrad Wiszniewski is the star saxophonist of the Scottish National Jazz Orchestra. Together, they bring new life to old favourites and play with deep creativity, huge passion and palpable enjoyment of the music.

Saturday 5th August @ 8pm

Dean Owens

A spellbinding live performer with a searingly soulful voice, he skillfully crafts songs and earworm inducing melodies. Dean's travels have taken him from Scotland's post-industrial heartlands to the panoramic vistas of the US deserts where he recorded his latest album 'Sinner's Shrine' with desert noir icons Calexico.

Saturday 20th August @ 7.30pm

Eryn Rae

Recently crowned as the 2022 BBC Radio Scotland Young Traditional Musician of the Year, Eryn has a big future ahead of her. We're excited to have secured a 'home' gig showcasing her amazing fiddle playing.

Friday 26th August @ 8pm

Alex Yellowlees Hot Club Quartet

Described as a modern day Stephane Grappelli, Alex performs with three of Scotland's premier musicians, creating a unique blend of styles: classic Django style jazz spiced with Celtic gypsy flair!

Saturday 10th September @ 7.30pm

Ryan Young

Ryan brings new depths in his interpretations of Scottish music, his fiddle playing brims with fresh melodic ideas, uplifting rhythmic drive and great depth of dynamics and precision.

His relative youth betrays the maturity in his ability to interpret and celebrate traditional tunes - definitely not to be missed!

Friday 23rd September @ 8pm

Adam Holmes

Adam crafts lyrics that resonate like old folk songs, set to melodies rooted in the haunting slow airs and hymns that echoed through his childhood. This show is part of a tour launching his 5th album 'Hope Park'.

Saturday 15th October @ 7.30pm

North Sea Gas

The classic Scottish folk band on the cusp of celebrating 40 years on the road, have released 22 albums. Expect an evening of good time old fashioned entertainment featuring traditional and contemporary material along with humour and many tall tales!

Saturday 22nd October @ 7.30pm