The Great Tapestry of Scotland

The Great Tapestry of Scotland tells the inspirational true story of the country's history, heritage and culture (from 8500 BC to present day). It was hand stitched by over 1000 people in communities across Scotland and transported by land, sea and air to come together.

It is made up of 160 panels of Scottish linen and 300 miles of wool (enough to lay the entire length of Scotland from the Border with England to the tip of the Shetland in the North Atlantic).

Carefully and methodically handcrafted, it's a remarkable achievement of great skill and determination, bringing people across Scotland together to celebrate the wonderful embroidery skills passed down through generations and create a visual record of their history.

The brand new purpose built national gallery and visitor centre housing the Tapestry will open in Galashiels in the heart of the UK's premier textile region in 2021. It will celebrate the creative talents of the stitchers and tell the people's story of Scotland – from Mary Queen of Scots, Robert the Bruce, Robert Burns and Sir Walter Scott to rugby, football, movies and music.

In addition to showcasing the beautiful Tapestry and telling the story of Scotland through interactive displays and audio guides, there will be nationally significant changing exhibitions and education activities, workshops and events where people can meet the makers, a gift shop, and a café serving seasonal and local produce.

The Great Tapestry of Scotland will be a must visit, significant and sustainable, high quality visitor experience that will bring new and repeat visits to the area and support other tourist related business, particularly in the Borders. We have a requirement for a Marketing and Events Officer to join the team, providing a flawless first class service and world-class welcome to visitors.
