

Museums Education & Access Officer Hawick

£12.64 - £13.75 per hour

(Grade 6)

Temporary until 31st March 2023

16 hours per week

Be part of our Museums, Galleries & Archives team and contribute to the development of education and access across museums in the Hawick and Jedburgh areas.

This is a key post required to grow audiences and develop a range of activities for schools, colleges and the wider community. In addition you will contribute to the Service to progress priority work around collections-based learning, health & well-being activities and digital access as a leading part of our core offer.

Work across wider service as and when required including cross-service working with colleagues in similar roles promoting learning, access and engagement.

You will demonstrate willingness to support and deliver high standards of work across a range of settings. Strongly customer focused, confident in working with diverse audiences of all ages and able to work effectively in teams. You will demonstrate a proactive, friendly, positive and approachable manner and enthusiasm for working with community groups.

Closing date 26th August 2022
