

LAP of the MUSEUM

Look out for these model cars around the museum. Beside each of them is an important trophy or object that tells us about Jim's life. See if you can spot all the models. When you finish ask a member of staff for your champion sticker!

Trophy Room
(RIGHT SIDE)

Jim was helped by a team of mechanics who repaired his cars

Jim was made a 'Legend of the Glen' for his achievements in America

This trophy looks like a part of one of Jim's engines

Teamwork

Jim's friend designed this steering wheel

Jim wore this helmet, watch and driving suit during races

Garage

This was the first ever race Jim won

Berwickshire

Jim started out in racing by reading maps for his cousin in a rally

World Champion

This was the first Formula One Grand Prix that Jim won

Jim was Formula One World Champion in 1963

PITSTOP

Jim's friends used this clipboard to record his lap times

Jim won this jacket at the Indianapolis 500 miles in 1963

World Champion
(CONTINUED)

This shield is for the famous Le Mans 24 hours race in France

Jim was British Saloon Car Champion in 1961

Jim was American TV's Sports Personality of the Year in 1965

Jim won the British Grand Prix in 1963

Jim was Formula One World Champion again in 1965

This clock is for the famous Indianapolis 500 miles race in America

Jim won this clock for his mastery of split-second timing

Jim was on the cover of America's most important magazine

These programmes show the different sorts of events Jim raced in

Jim raced for Team Lotus whose colours were green and yellow

Personality

Jim was given this trophy by ice skaters as a thank you gift

Legacy

Jim was given this warrior helmet for helping design a race track in Japan

Jim won this shield for a night-time rally in Berwickshire

Jim was British Sports Car Champion in 1959

Jim's mum and dad donated this plate to the Jim Clark Memorial Rally

Trophy Room (LEFT SIDE)

Jim was the first driver in Britain to go over 100mph in a sports car race

